New HR Specialists

Bailey Hull
Tawana McDonald
Benefit-eligible staff will use a new performance management platform called ePerformance beginning in 2020.

Each spring, the University’s performance appraisal process helps us take stock of where we’ve been and plan for the year to come. In 2020, the process will use the same criteria, but a new software platform, ePerformance, will improve the user experience, provide cost savings for the University and allow for better integration with the University’s human resources software.
Testing conducted February 4th, 2020
Documents from Halogen are migrating to PeopleSoft
Over 70,000 documents system wide

Process Dates & Deadlines
- April 1st – April 30th – Self-appraisal
- May 1st - May 31st – Manager Level
- June 1st - June 30th – 2nd Level Manager
- July 1st - July 31st – Discuss and Sign Off

Training/Informational sessions will be scheduled for employees and supervisors.
HR ePerformance page will be updated

> Minimum Qualifications
  > Job Code Details Page
  https://compsearch.umsystem.edu/apps/hr/compensation/detail/compSearch/
  > Preferred qualifications can be added

> Posted Salary Ranges
  > Departments are not required to post the entire GGS range
  > Posted salary ranges should leave room for counter offers (if budget allows)
  > If the offer amount is higher than what's posted, departments are typically required to make an offer within the posted range or repost the position with the higher range.
  > Offers are still reviewed for Equity

Graduate Student Concurrent Appointments

Historically have not allowed concurrent jobs for graduate appointments

> GTA
> GRA

Previously combined on one appointment and split on the JED
Effective 02/01/2020

> Appointments for GRAs and GTAs in same department, need to be on 2 separate jobs

> Current appointments have been updated/split effective 02/01/2020

Going forward please process separate appointments
Thank you for attending.

We appreciate all you do in support of our campus!
